

of the town. Commercial dining and lodging facilities are located in the but not in the park itself. To protect the park, no camping or open fires are only in designated areas. For further information contact:

HP
Telephone: (304) 535-6223
Internet: www.nps.gov/hate

APPALACHIAN TRAIL CONSERVANCY
Ferry, at the intersection of Washington Street and Storer College Place, is responsible for the maintenance of the entire 2,176-mile Appalachian Visitor Center and Store, located in the headquarters building, offers a full range of publications and Trail-related items.
on ATC individual membership, trail clubs, or items for sale, contact:
Telephone: (304) 535-6331
Internet: www.appalachiantrail.org

NOTES
Appalachian Trail Club, Inc., is responsible for the publication of trails, features, or its map, or for occurrences of trails, features, or occurrences, specifically springs, sources, specifically springs, should be regarded as use. All water taken from could be purified before are used to wash eating needed to report map information to the Potomac b.
entation is not necessarily

LEGEND

- Y NHP
- Trail Park
- Forest or Wildlife Management Area
- ALTER, CAMPGROUND
- V; BOAT RAMP
- I LINE
- lazed white)
- , private roads, other streets
- ys

um: North American Datum of 1983 (NAD 83)
000-meter Universal Transverse Mercator (UTM)
National Grid is equivalent to the Military Grid Reference details at: www.fgdc.gov/standards/status/using.html
ignation for the area of this map is: 18S Square Identification for the area of this map is: TJ mple: With a GPS receiver set to NAD 83, the bulletin st Virginia end of the footbridge over the Potomac River sters of:
inate: 18S TJ 6475056200 (units are meters)
18 264750 easting 4356200 northing hydrography, roads, railroads, etc.) based on 1:24,000-scale digital data eological Survey and edited through ground truthing surveys.

ELEVATION PROFILE OF THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL
Potomac River to Snickers Gap (VA Route 7)

